the dialectic of porn

example: the facial

can be read as

1. humiliation for the receiver
a. victory, celebration for the "producer"

yet can also be read as

2. power of the receiver for in fact being the agent of the outcome

how do we read agency here? who is celebrating? is it simply a celebration for both parties? (but in different ways/)

Of course it can be read as subordination….but it doesn't have to be.
